'TOTAL PEOPLE' Training Awards

RTA Shortlisted as employer most committed to Training & Development

Here at RTA we are delighted to have been shortlisted for a National award in the category 'Employer most committed to Training and Development' alongside business heavyweights such as Barclays Bank, BAE Systems, Bentley Motors, Cheshire Council, Ricoh UK.

Chairman Paul O'Reilly says "We are proud to find ourselves in such esteemed company. At RTA we are pledged to providing the best quality service in the industry, and we recognise that our staff are key to our future success. Being shortlisted for this award demonstrates our commitment to training and development and warmest congratulations go to our staff for their hard work and dedication"

Recent NVQ success for RTA staff.

Congratulations go to David Knowles, Gavin Naylor, Ellen McCorley and Julie Lowcock at the RTA client call centre for success in their recent NVQ level 2 assessment. Further credit must go to both David and Gavin who are about to start their level 3 NVQ course with Total People.

In all, over 30% of RTA staff are now studying NVQ through training provider 'Total People'

RTA call centre manager Mr John Gower says "The enthusiasm for the NVQ's has been tremendous. I am delighted at the first completions and encourage all others to complete their studies" we are sure that many more staff will benefit from the courses supplied by 'Total People' in the future.
